Amanda's Amazing Adventures

I am so excited to escort the Historic Highlights trip to Washington, D.C., Historic Williamsburg, and Shenandoah National Park. Though I have been to Washington, D.C. many times before, each and every time brings something new and exciting. This year, the exciting event will, of course, be the Centennial Celebration of the Cherry Blossom Festival. I am so excited to partake in this once in a lifetime event as well as see the beautiful cherry blossoms in full bloom.

Fun Fact: Nearly 100 years ago Tokyo bestowed a gift of 3,000 cherry blossom trees to the city of Washington, D.C. As a symbol of friendship, rooted strongly and surviving outside elements, the trees have withstood the test of time - and nearly a century later, we will celebrate at the National Cherry Blossom Festival.

Participating in a celebration is a great thing, but Washington is full of ways to remember and honor our service men and women. We have extra time reserved to find loved ones and or friends' grave sites at Arlington National Cemetery, the Vietnam Memorial, or anywhere in between. Let us know the names ahead of time and we will assure you are able to find those requested.

Washington is truly a place that you can go 100 different times and see in 100 different ways. Let this time be your time to honor our service men and women, celebrate our country's beauty, and enjoy the history of our nation's Capitol.

The history lesson does not stop in Washington, however. Historic Williamsburg is another great stop on this grand adventure. We will visit Yorktown Victory Center, Jamestown Settlement, Washington's Mt. Vernon, and Jefferson's Monticello just to name a few of the historical sights. Between war reenactments, rebuilt settlement homes, Indian villages, and craftsmen, historic colonial Williamsburg will be a place you will not want to miss! Finally, the ride back to the airport, we will partake in the beauty of the Shenandoah National Park. So who is ready to go on this trip with me? Space is very limited so call today! If this trip does not interest you, make sure to check out our Fall Foliage Sights and Sounds of the South Bus Trip or Thanksgiving Cruise that I am escorting!

This trip is going to be amazing - we'll start our trip in Louisville, KY September 6th and end in St. Louis, MO. The theme is "Music of the 50's" and I have been told that the Platters and Bill Haley's Comets will be paying us a visit on board. Come on with me. We'll have a great time!!! (See Roseborough Exclusive Escorted Vacations).

Tiffany's Travel Topics

Safety practices in cruising - Like you, all of us at Roseborough Travel Agency are deeply saddened by the events surrounding the tragic Costa Concordia accident. Our thoughts and prayers are with everyone affected.

I debated about writing this part on my travel topics, but in the end, I feel it is my duty to give you as much travel information as possible. Fleet wide, all brands under the Carnival Corporate umbrella will undergo a safety audit and a review of emergency response and safety procedures. This company wide initiative will identify lessons learned and best practices to further ensure the security and safety of all of our clients. I wanted to be respectful and mindful of this situation however, the concerns that have been raised about the safety of cruise ships compelled me to take the opportunity to acknowledge the situation. Following recent events we have been assured by ALL major cruise lines that safety practices have been heightened. We would like to reassure you, cruising continues to maintain the best safety record of any industry in the travel business.

- When making a reservation - be ready to provide FULL LEGAL names (as they appear on passport) and date of birth - Per TSA regulations
- Don't forget to take advantage of discounts available to Past Passengers/Police & Fire Dept/ Military, etc. (Documents may be required to prove such status)
- Provide Frequent Flyer Numbers to be sure you're getting credit for all of those miles you're flying
- Contrary to popular belief - you can still cruise with the CERTIFIED COPY of your birth certificate. *Conditions apply - ask your agent for details
- Packing tip - Travelling couples: Split up your valuables and clothes when packing. In case, one of your bags get lost or stolen
- Also consider writing your home and destination address on a self-adhesive stick label to stick INSIDE your luggage in a visible place. That way, if your luggage is lost and the baggage label has come off, at least the airline can still figure out whose luggage it is
- Scan your passport, passport photos and any other important documents/information. Store these documents in your web based email account for easy access.

we always have your best interest at heart - and we want your next
