Amanda's Amazing Adventures

Right now we are wrapping up our 2012 with two last Roseborough Exclusive Vacations I will be escorting our Annual Thanksgiving Cruise on Holland America Line to San Juan, Half Moon Cay, Turks and Caicos, and St. Maarten. This is always a great crowd of people and a great Cruise. Besides, I get out of doing the dishes for the holiday. I LOVE to cook but HATE to clean it all up... (And I know my husband is happy to be on the cruise and get out of dish detail too!)

As many of you know, we kick off the New Year with a huge vacation expo. I hope you will join us January 5th at Victoria Gardens for our 3rd Annual Elite Cruise and Tour Show. We have been working really hard on making this event great- with tons of prizes, great deals, and educational speakers. We are bringing in all of the major cruise and tour companies for the benefit of our clients to have one stop shopping in planning and booking their 2013-2014 vacations. I hope to see you there!

So - we have established I like to cook and I like to cruise. Of course, the thing that is missing in that combination, is the WINE. I love pairing great food with great wine. I love traveling while doing so even more. So it was an obvious match for me when we had clients in the agency request a wine cruise--have I got the cruise for you! I am so incredibly excited to introduce to you our Wine Immersion Cruise on the Celebrity Infinity. This is a port intensive cruise that is perfect for almost anyone. Do not be discouraged by the title "Wine Immersion Cruise" You do not have to be a connoisseur to go. Just a few of the great things about this cruise are the wine pairings, seminars, tastings, and Roseborough Travel has gifted anyone who joins me on this cruise a special wine appreciation seminar. So wine, wine, and more wine – how does it appeal to the non-wine drinkers you ask? Land, land, and more land, of course, is the answer.

This cruise has an awesome itinerary. We start our journey with transportation from Roseborough Travel Agency (unless you have 10 or more coming from a different pick up location). We will all fly from the Orlando International Airport into London. Our group will take the day to see the sights of London and then onto Harwich where our newly refurbished ship Celebrity Infinity departs. We have 2 days to see in Paris when docked in Le Havre. You can see the Eiffel Tower, visit the Louvre, take a trip to Versailles, or visit the beaches of Normandy. Then we are onto Bordeaux, France where we will have an overnight in port to see the beauty of the region. We also have time in Bilbao Spain where you can travel into the heart of the city to explore the Old Quarter, see the famous Seven Streets' area, interesting Renaissance and Baroque architecture, and St. Nicholas Church. Immerse yourself in Spain's culture when traveling onto Vigo. Last time I was in Vigo I visited the beautiful Mount Castro Gardens where you can see the whole city from above. We toured Santiago de Compostela Cathedral but you can take it a step farther and actually follow the Catholic Pilgrimage of so many others through the rolling hills of the Galician countryside from the 9th century. Porto is a region in Portugal known for port wine-- but that's not all. Built on the bank of the Douro River, Oporto is a city where the old contrasts with the new. See the fabulous mix of architectural styles, a UNESCO World Heritage site, discover Clérigos tower, Ribeira quarter, or visit the Palácio da Bolsa (Stock Exchange Palace)- just to name a few. Whether you are a wine connoisseur, history buff, European travel enthusiast, or just looking for a relaxing vacation this is a great cruise!

Though our Celebrity representative cannot be at the Elite Cruise & Tour Show he has sent us some great Celebrity door prizes and will be offering up to $100 off your booking at this event. I hope you will join me in my Amazing Adventures and partake in the fun, food, wine, and grand experience of all things travel!

DISCOVER THE LAST FRONTIER!!!

Denali. Yukon. Wildlife. Glaciers. Alaska

Do you believe there are still frontiers to explore? Come experience the joy of first discovery in the mountainous, subarctic paradise of the Yukon. Witness the intense beauty of a northern summer in the vast, untamed landscape.

Did you know Alaska is so vast that on a cruise alone you only see 1% of its beauty and awe? If you are looking for wildlife, see the big 4: Moose, Grizzly Bear, Dall Sheep and Caribou on a two day adventure of the Great One- Mt. McKinley. The experts agree- Denali National Park is Alaska's most popular land-based attraction. It contains celebrated sights including towering Mt. McKinley, the crown of an immense and breathtakingly beautiful wilderness. If glaciers are what you are looking for-you will enjoy the ice-studded fjords of Glacier Bay where skyscraper sized chunks of blue ice slide down the face of towering glaciers and you can hear "white thunder", you'll come closer to understanding why the inside passage is such a popular destination. What ever your dream of Alaska and the Yukon may be, this cruise tour is the perfect adventure.

Not included:

- Excursions
- Tips & gratuities otherwise from stated above
- Airfare

Cathy's Corner

The American Queen was an amazing trip. We had great weather and were able to just sit back and really enjoy the scenery of the Ohio and Mississippi River's. The entertainment was wonderful (we had a doo whop of a time), but I think my personal favorite part of the trip was the service – I loved the way the staff treated my clients- they truly cared. Plus the food was excellent!!! I could have eaten fried chicken every night.

For those who missed this past trip – give me a call about other Steamboatin' Adventures. From Gardens of the river, to Jazz or Blues, and seasonal sailings galore- you can cruise the rivers for Mardi Gras, Christmas, and everything in-between.

What's next? I am starting to get excited about our "Christmas Spectacular" bus trip. It's going to be wonderful seeing all the lights and just getting into the holiday spirit. As many of you may know I've never been to Helen, Lake Lanier, or Stone Mountain so I am really looking forward to experiencing this trip with all of you. Helen, GA is a unique little German village; a great place to enjoy crafts, shopping, and to satisfy your sweet tooth - try the German bakery. Stone Mountain will definitely be entertaining with the lights, shows, and entertainment. And I cannot wait to get to Legacy Lodge in Lake Lanier. We still have a few seats available – please join me in the joy of the season.

If Alaska is ANYWHERE on your bucket list, have I got the thing for you! We will be having an On Stage Alaska presentation with Holland America Line January 22, 2013 at 3PM. Please join us at Victoria Gardens Clubhouse to learn more about Alaska and the Yukon. Additionally, Roseborough Travel will have an escorted vacation I would love for you to join us on. Our Alaska trip will be August 14-28, 2013 and is going to be awesome! We're featuring land, land, and more land. You'll have DOUBLE Days in Denali but you'll also have Tok (you want wilderness, you got it), Dawson City (where you take an optional tour to Tombstone Park), and Whitehorse. You'll be able to experience the Yukon to the fullest. Then wind down with a short cruise from Skagway to Vancouver and a great trip home with the group.

Did you know – The Yukon is the size of California? And Alaska and the Yukon equal the size of 1/4th the size of the US? Whether its your first time to Alaska, 2nd or 3rd, Alaska is a great place to vacation that you just cant see enough of.

Travel Trivia:

- In 1887, the United States purchased Alaska from Russia for $7,200,000 or how much per acre?
a. 2 cents b. 25 cents c. $1.00 d. $3.50
- What is the highest mountain in Alaska?
a. Mt. Juneau b. Mt. McKinley c. Mt. Spur d. None of the above.
- Anchorage is the largest city in Alaska.
True or False?
- The state bird of Alaska is the Bald Eagle.
True or False?

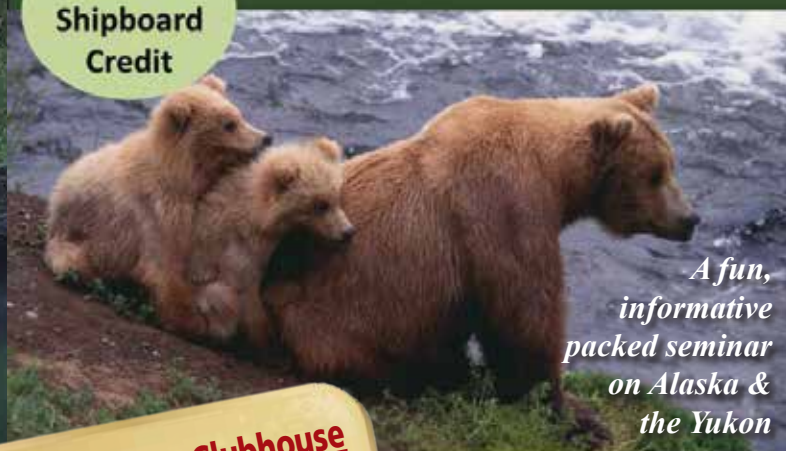

- 2 cents ✓ This purchase was originally considered foolish!
2. Mt. McKinley ✓ Also the highest mountain in North America
3. True ✓ 260,000 people or 42% of Alaska's population
4. False ✓ Alaska's state bird is the Willow Ptarmigan
