

Corporate travel booking made easy

Simplify booking while reducing costs with on-demand travel management

Easily finding independent and competitive travel content that is both locally specific and globally relevant is not always a simple task. This becomes even more difficult when organization-specific travel policies, reporting needs and traveler conveniences are factored into the equation.

Concur: a Web-based and mobile travel solution

Concur's travel management solution simplifies corporate travel booking while automatically enforcing policies and providing visibility through detailed report analysis. Employees are free to make preferential choices while organizations stay in complete control. Concur's solution works the way your business works - adapting to your workflow and company policies.

Book what you need:

- Access a full range of content
- Search for and book relevant in-policy travel
- Save by comparing all fares, including corporate discounts and internet-only fares

Quickly and easily:

- Book everything from one easy-to-use tool
- Forgot to book a hotel, rental car or train? Add it from a smartphone
- Dive into spending with detailed reporting

Concur's Web-based and mobile travel booking solution provides global travel content in one intuitive and easily-accessible tool

MOBILE TRAVEL MANAGEMENT

Concur's mobile app streamlines the business travel experience and gives travelers the flexibility to manage their itineraries with ease.

Travel information is conveniently accessible and reservations are easy to make on the fly:

- View travel itineraries and directions
- Easily book hotels, cars, trains or taxis
- Check flight status and airport gate information

Smarter travel comes with better benefits

Independence and control

Concur's travel solution works with your preferred travel management company and corporate credit card provider. Robust business rules combined with automated pre-trip approval ensure consistent travel policy enforcement – putting organizations in complete control of their corporate travel booking process.

Easy online travel booking

From a single, intuitive Web-based interface, travelers can quickly and simultaneously book local and international flights, rental car, hotel and rail reservations guided by your organization's specific policies.

E-receipts

After travel, participating travel suppliers – including many of the world's major airline carriers, hotel chains and rental car companies – automatically deliver complete electronic folio data in the form of e-receipts directly into a traveler's Concur expense report.

*Aberdeen Group

Concur matches travel booking information with credit card charges and electronic receipts to create a secure system of checks and balances for your company's spending.

Reduced travel booking fees

Easy-to-use tools drive adoption, which reduces program leakage and reliance on travel agent-assisted reservations. This can significantly cut fees associated with booking travel by as much as 79 percent per booking transaction*.
