You don't have to be a high roller to feel like one. Casinos across the city cater to all kinds of players from the penny slots to sports betting.

If you've been practicing your poker face, you'll be thrilled to discover newly renovated and expanded poker rooms in many casinos including the Venetian, MGM Grand and Caesars Palace. Even play like a pro at the Rio, where the World Series of Poker is hosted each summer.

But if 21 is your preferred game, you can't miss the Pleasure Pit at Planet Hollywood or the casino at the Hard Rock, where go-go dancers entertain and even deal your next hand. Even play some blackjack poolside at many hotels. Tropicana, Caesars Garden of the Gods and the Encore Beach Club bring the action outside. It's the perfect place to try your luck and a specialty cocktail.

When the sun sets, the tables really start to sizzle. At the world's only Playboy Club at Palms Casino Resort, dealers sport stilettos, bunny ears and fluffy tails. Or reserve your table at The Duece Lounge, located inside ARIA, where blackjack tables surround an intimate bar rich with wood tones and a warm atmosphere.

No other place on earth offers the variety of blackjack, roulette, poker, craps, slots and more. The excitement of winning is contagious, and it's not uncommon to make friends over a craps table.

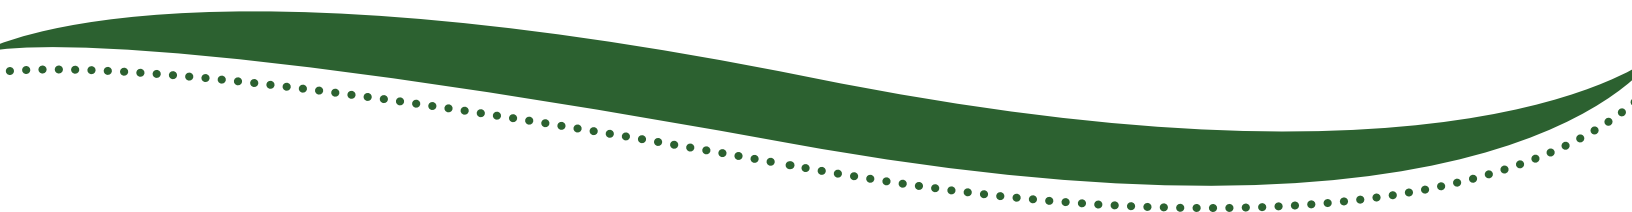

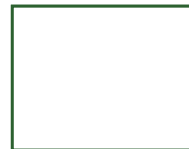

Catch nearly every game, race and sporting event on the planet at the sports books of Las Vegas. Inside Lagasse Stadium at The Palazzo, settle into comfortable sofas or even a private box to enjoy the cuisine of Emeril Lagasse while placing a bet on your favorite team. Stadium seating and a specialty cocktail menu make this the go-to place for sports fans of all stripes.

Or lounge comfortably in the VIP section of MGM Grand's split-level sports book. It's got all the excitement of watching the game with a crowd, but the comfort of watching from home. And of course, the food far surpasses your typical stadium hot dogs and pretzels.

The hottest off-strip casino, M Resort, offers in-running wagering and brings the action right to the palm of your hand. With a handheld device, place bets on sporting events already in progress, using adjusted lines that change throughout the game. And you're free to place bets from anywhere. Keep an eye on your game at the pool, or up your wager over lunch.

The luck's happening all day and all night in every corner of Las Vegas. And it's high time you got your game on.

IF YOU'RE THINKING ABOUT A VISIT TO LAS VEGAS,
YOUR TRIP JUST GOT A WHOLE LOT BETTER.
