romance

Take your lover to the Eiffel Tower at Paris Las Vegas or meet at the Empire State building outside New York-New York. Wherever you find yourself in Las Vegas, you are likely to find yourself falling in love.

Stroll arm in arm past the fountains outside the Bellagio, kiss under the bridges on a gondola ride through the Shoppes at the Venetian or win your sweetheart an oversized stuffed animal at the many arcades around the Strip.

Romance is in abundance in Las Vegas, and you don't have to look far to find it.

Nothing sets the mood better than relaxing and rejuvenating with specialty spa treatments you'll only find in the exclusive spas of Las Vegas. Even in the desert, the snow melts on your skin at the Qua Baths at Caesars Palace. And the steam heats things up at Palms Place in the hammam, Vegas' first traditional Turkish bath. It's a modern, sensual experience you'd be hard-pressed to find anywhere else.

The city's newest addition, CityCenter, features the acclaimed spas of ARIA, Mandarin Oriental and Vdara. The ARIA Resort Spa and Salon offers a lengthy menu of treatment options including intimate couples massages, heated-stone ganbanyoku beds and the fresh air of the salt room.

Book your special package just for two at Reliquary Spa inside the Hard Rock Hotel and Casino for a hint at hip in your relaxation regimen.

After a day of pampering, enjoy sharing a gourmet meal with someone special, prepared by a cadre of notable names. Enjoy Wolfgang Puck's legendary Spago in the Forum Shops or make a reservation at the acclaimed Guy Savoy, located inside Caesars Palace.

Dine under crystal and feather chandeliers while toasting to your good fortune at the decadent Alex inside Wynn Las Vegas. Chef Alessandro Stratta's French Riviera cuisine has been heralded by the critics. Or head next door to Encore and enjoy Sinatra, where classic memorabilia hints at an era of total decadence.

Be sure to save room for dessert. Try the world-famous frozen hot chocolate at Serendipity 3. Order one and ask for two spoons.

Drunk on love, retreat to your private room or suite. Views from the new ARIA are unrivaled and breathtaking. That's to say nothing of the state-of-the-art ambiance. Control temperature and even mood music from one central control panel in each room.

For taking the next big step on life's romantic journey, Las Vegas offers every kind of marriage ceremony. Let Elvis read your vows in one of the downtown chapels or opt for a more traditional ceremony at the Strip's most opulent hotels. Experienced staff will be by your side every step of the way.

Get away with someone special today. If you can dream it, you can do it together in Las Vegas.

IF YOU'RE THINKING ABOUT A VISIT TO LAS VEGAS,
YOUR TRIP JUST GOT A WHOLE LOT BETTER.
