

“Must Do’s” on QUANTUM OF THE SEAS/QUANTUM CLASS SHIPS

- Silent Party...do NOT miss!!!!
- Consider doing Matinee for Mamma Mia on standby line balcony level....will free up evening time
- Order the specialty drinks that "go" with each restaurant
- 11 minute mark watching Starwater smile emoticon
- Read a book in the Turkish bed in front of the ship's wake in Two70
- Get a picture of yourself in the white "Onion Chair" (maybe it's more Garlic Shaped ) opposite the iridescent glass sculpture on the way to Two70
- Have a glass of wine and snacks in Vintages and sack out on a burgundy velvet sofa
- Do Jamie's for lunch second last sea day (least busy)
- Do North Star last day at 9am (zero line up)
- Don't miss virtual concert (day four and six) look for it in Cruise Compass
- Enjoy a rainy sea day in Two70
- Have breakfast in Two70
- Bring a 70's outfit for 70's party
- Bring a white outfit for "white party"
- Eat warm cookies
- Detox Smoothie in Solarium with extra Kale
- Reserve Wonderland and ask for a seat far away from Esplanade (quieter) & Let your server choose your dinner
- Bring a highlighter for cruise compass
- Attend Captain's Corner and watch "Dance in a Box " on robo-screens
- Check out Vistarama show on the Two70 screens...just sit and be peaceful.
- Do Sail away at North Star Bar.....under the bridge is fantastic
- Get a picture on the Swing in Two70
- Drink a Tribute in Music Hall
- Drink a Lava Flow from Sky Bar at the pool
- Drink a Moscow Mule from Two70 (ginger is hand shredded)
- Drink a Triple Coconut Mojito from Bolero's
- Order Pictures second last day (no wait)
- Don't miss Sonic or Starwater
- Read a book in the huge papasan chairs in Solarium
- The prosecco at Coastal is very,very good and included in drinks package (tastes like Cliquot...dead serious and comes in the most beautiful stem less crystal glass)
- Don't get frustrated at the lack of pool servers - just go get your own drink poolside at Sky Bar
- The skinny vanilla latte at Patisserie is very,very good
- Take the stairs....even 4 to 14...it's hard but will keep weight gain down.
- Drink lots of bottled water to keep swelling to a minimum...the ship's water still contains salt.
- Wear Silver or Black and get a formal picture outside Wonderland in the tufted chair
- All bars are very specific, each has a theme....so don't try to get a martini at wine bar or a frozen drink at Two70. Go with the theme.
- Consider early dinners (like 6pm) so that you can take in all the nightlife.
- Don't be afraid of standby lines at restaurants (go early) and shows (you will get in)
- Don't expect Esplanade to be hopping with activity, it's very quiet, unlike other Royal ships as everyone is everywhere else.
- Music Hall goes 'til late for dancing.....hang there in the amazing comfy chairs
- Speaking of comfy chairs, whoever chose the seating for the ENTIRE ship did a amazing job. So much "oh this is my favorite chair or sofa" in every venue.
