Cathy's CORNER

Hi folks!!! Dana and I just got back from our Branson trip. Had a great time!! Saw some wonderful shows - I was really amazed at the talent that is in Branson. Weather was decent - had a couple of days of rain but by the 3rd day it was sunny and 70. I am so ready to start planning our next Branson trip - I am thinking early December 2013 - they have great shows for the Christmas season and I really think it will get everyone into the Christmas spirit!

Another thing I wanted to chat about was...the American Queen - yes, I'm talking about steam boating! September 6th-14th, 2012 starts in Louisville and ends up in St. Louis - the theme is music in the 50's! I've got pricing for the cruise portion; just waiting for the air rates to come in. This will be a whole different way of cruising for those who haven't done a riverboat cruise. Space is limited so call the office and reserve your cabin!

NOW OPEN: The Great American Steamboat Company!!
This line goes through the U.S. canals and waterways.

Experience the Music of the 50's on the American Queen Paddleboat!

Join us on a nostalgic journey to the fun-loving, carefree days of the 50's as we recreate the music, activities, and events of this golden era. You'll rock around the clock to the sounds of legendary artists like Chuck Berry, Fats Domino and Elvis. You'll also meet recording stars, TV personalities, special guests, and sports figures of the era. If you miss the great days and fun times of the 50's, you won't want to miss this voyage.

Amanda's Amazing Adventures

One of my favorite things to do is to travel - perfect with the industry I am in! I LOVE it when clients come into the office and start planning their vacations. The planning stages get my mind reeling about all of the amazing things I have seen, and all the many more I have yet to experience.

Since this newsletter is all about the Holidays, I will talk about my family's Thanksgiving tradition. Of course, a wonderful meal, some yummy pies and the tradition of togetherness is the most important thing for my family - like so many others. But we celebrate in a different way.

Every year, my family gathers from near and far to hop on a cruise for the week of Thanksgiving. Typically, we take 5-6 car loads of the family to the port. We're so excited to get on board, we don't even wait for each other. Our motto..."Meet you on the Lido Deck!"

Of course, the food is not the most important thing about this vacation; the tradition and togetherness is why we all go on a cruise. And for the women in the my family (and my dad who is the Chef of the house) we do not need to clean up a single pot or pan! BONUS!

This year we are traveling on Carnival Miracle to St. Lucia, St. Marteen, and St. Thomas. I can't wait to tell you all how wonderful it was when I return. Next year, Roseborough Travel's Annual Thanksgiving Cruise is where we will be! And remember, next time you are planning a family reunion - GO CRUISING!!!
