Keepin' up with Kelly

Last year our group of extended family and Hockey friends sailed on the Epic and LOVED it! When children (young adults and adults) can't wait to book their next cruise, it is always a compliment. It was a great ship and we all agreed that the new ship (Getaway) was the next obvious choice.

This year we have selected the NCL Getaway for our Spring Cruise because it provides the perfect blend of casual cruising with the finer accommodations. Amenities such as the free-style dining was a smash hit with our group because we all have the ability to eat when we please and not wait on the rest of the group. The variety and quality of food was fantastic. The price point was also very competitive.

This year, we keep getting new families to join. Such a great testament to the cruise line, and the families' enjoyment. So hop onboard with us and enjoy the Getaway!

DeAnn's Delightful Destinations

Biloxi, much more than gambling... Rich in history and resilience, as we will see on our historical tour of the area that has come back from Hurricane Katrina. Staying at the Beau, as it's referred to by the locals. The Beau Rivage is a gorgeous seaside resort with beautifully appointed rooms, quaint shops and fabulous food! We continue our seaside getaway as we make our way to the sugar white sand and Emerald green waters of Pensacola Beach! Our hotel is directly on the beach! Here again we will be immersed in history at the National Naval Aviation Museum, home of the Blue Angels and a historic tour of "old" Pensacola. And of course, more great food!
